SCHOOL IS COOL

The best use of the newspaper

For a healthy reading habit

Students make creative dresses from newspapers

Newspaper Reading

To inculcate the habit of reading newspapers among the students, City International School, Satara Road organised a newspaper reading activity in the school in which students from classes VI to X participated. The students were assessed on the basis of articulation, intonation, presentation and clarity of voice. Principal Leena Bhosale said that reading the newspaper is a good habit which provides a great sense of educational value. Newspapers not only enhance our knowledge but also improve our language skills and vocabulary.

Dress-making with newspapers

A creative activity namely

"Dress making with newspaper" was organised for the students of classes VI to VIII on June 28. They designed beautiful dresses with newspapers and converted the 'everyday reading' into attractive and creative apparels.

Newspaper drive for charity

Not all of us can do great things. But we can do small things with great love - Mother Teresa

An activity named 'Newspaper drive' was conducted on June 26 by the charity club teachers and students of classes VI to X. The main idea was to collect old newspapers from students and teachers and to donate the money obtained from the sale for a charitable cause. Under the guidance of principal Leena Bhosale, each student tried to collect as many newspapers as possible. The club head student member from every class collected all the newspapers. This activity was supervised by the charity club teachers.

It was a great team bonding experience for everyone. Overall, the drive was a great success and the school hopes for more collection the next year.
